24/01/19 - Warwickshire Police Writing Competition for Safer Internet Week

To promote Safer Internet Week and wider knowledge amongst children and young people on how to keep themselves safe on line, Warwickshire Police are holding a creative writing competition.

The competition is open to children and young people aged six to seventeen years.

They are invited to write a poem, rhyme, song lyrics, a rap, a blog post or short story, based on the themes of this year's competition, 'together for a better internet', or 'respect online', or '#BeCyberKind'.

There are three age categories; 6-8, 9-11, 12+ and the top three entries in each category will be awarded prizes - 1st = £100 voucher, 2nd = £50 voucher, 3rd = £25 voucher. All entrants receive a participation certificate.

The competition will be launched on 5th February (which is Safer Internet Day 2019), with the closing date for entries set for 28th February. The final judges selection of winners will be carried out on 13th March, enabling the winners can be announced on 20th March.

Please share this message with anyone you think will be interested in the competition and please see the attached poster, information pack and application form for further details.

Get going and get creative, we are looking forward to reading your entries. Good luck!
