21/04/19 - Attempted Theft of Lamb in Wootton Wawen

CORRECTION TO PREVIOUS ALERT - Lane Name.

This morning (21/4/19) an offender was seen to take a lamb from a field on Pennyford Lane, Wootton Wawen. The offender dropped the lamb when seen and made off in a vehicle described as a high vehicle with orange stripes, partial VRM taken as NXO8. If you see a vehicle matching this description or have any information that could help the police with their enquiries please call 101 and refer to inc 120 of 21/4/19 or email

NorthWarksRuralAlerts@Warwickshire.pnn.police.uk. Officers attended and it is believed the lamb was returned to the field. A horse rider was on the lane around the time the incident happened, if you were the rider or know who it was please call us or email.

Please be vigilant, if you see anyone in a field with sheep acting suspiciously please let the local farmer know if you are aware who they are or call the police with as much information as possible on 101. If a crime is being committed please call 999.

If you are the owner of sheep please check regularly at different times and do a count so you know if any are missing.
