08/07/19 - Police issue a warning to residents following several burglaries

Police issue warning following burglaries

Police have issued a warning after there were several burglaries in the county in recent days where people have committed burglaries through unsecure windows.

Police are offering the following advice:

- Ensure all your windows and doors are locked when you go out and go to bed - don't forget, burglars can squeeze through small windows.
- Don't leave windows or doors open on the ground floor when you're elsewhere in the house - it only takes a few seconds for a burglar to get in and out.
- Keep valuable items, including car keys, away from open windows.
- Don't leave your car keys on display in the house - put them in a drawer.
- Set your alarm when you are out and when you go to bed.

Detective Sergeant Stuart Hinton said: "When people leave their windows open it is important to remember that this presents opportunities to criminals. Please take sensible precautions, it only takes a few seconds to get into your property and steal something valuable."

08/07/19 - Jail for burglar who targeted the Stratford area

Jail for burglar who targeted Stratford area

A man responsible for a string of offences, including two in the Stratford district, has been jailed for two years and two months.

Paul Mark Andrews, 33, of no fixed abode, pleaded guilty at Warwick Crown Court to one count of burglary, two counts of handling stolen goods, and one count of theft and fraud. He was sentenced at the same court on Thursday (4 July).

On 28 January, a business was broken into in Smith's Way, Alcester. The offender stole power tools and a custom built pedal bike.

At a later date the victim spotted a pawnbroker from Redditch selling parts from the bike online. Officers visited the pawnbrokers to check their records and found they had been sold to them by Andrews.

While they were there, officers visited another pawnbroker in Redditch and established that Andrews had recently sold them camera equipment stolen from a car in Alcester on 24 May.

On 5 May, Andrews smashed a window and broke into a house in Mason's Road, Stratford. He stole cash. Blood from the scene led officers to Andrews.

On 19 May, Andrews stole a handbag, containing bank cards, from a car in Gunnings Road, Alcester. He was linked to the offence after police identified him from CCTV footage taken at shops where he used the cards.

Andrews was arrested in Alcester on 5 June.

Detective Constable Karl Brennan from Warwickshire Police Offender Management Unit said: "We are pleased to have put a prolific offender behind bars.

"Andrews committed these offences without any thought for the effect it would have on the victims. The Stratford area is safer now Andrews is in prison."
